BASELESS U-BOAT SCARE

Oyster or Fishing Stake Taken for Periscope of German Submersible on Thursday.

The U-boat scare which caused anxiety in Hampton Roads on Thursday soon simmered down. The steamer Northland, of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, which with the Baltimore steamers was accompanied by naval vessels some distance up the Chesapeake Bay Thursday night, left this port on her return trip last night with more than her usual complement of passengers who anticipated the appearance of sea serpents or mermaids more than German submarines.

The steamer Southland, of the same line, arrived at this port from Norfolk early this morning. Her officers smiled when the submarine scare was mentioned.

But for the fact that Bay passenger boats were halted and warned to navigate the head of the Chesapeake in a zigzag course, it is probable that Navy and War Department officials would have successfully prevented a leak of the submarine scare that tied up shipping out of Hampton Roads Thursday.

Investigation showed that wireless warnings had been flashed to outgoing ships and that no less than 17 had to turn about and return to Hampton Roads to await further instructions. Hurry calls had in the meantime been sent to Norfolk for all members of the crews of destroyers and submarine chasers on shore to leave to return to their ships. Soon Hampton Roads and the Bay as far as Cape Henry was alive with destroyers, chasers and Navy tugs scouring all navigable water for a submarine. The search continued late into the night.

Navy officers took little stock in the report, but heeded the scare merely as a precautionary measure. No submarine was ever located. Investigation showed that two ship masters arriving in the roads Thursday afternoon reported sighting the periscope of a submerged submarine evidently entering the Bay. Customs officials immediately transmitted the report to the commandant of Fort Monroe. Navy officials were promptly informed and the scare was on.

That the skippers of the vessels were mistaken is assured. What they saw in the opinion of watermen was a fish net or oyster stake floating end up, bobbing on the waves and being driven into the Bay by an oncoming high tide. Weighted down with barnacles, these stakes often float for hours in an upright position.

Certain it is that there is no strange U-boat in the Bay, for the waters were combed and, in tht opinion of experts, there are but few spots in the Bay where a submarine could successfully hide for any length of time, if at all. In the navigable channels such a craft submerged would be in constant danger of being rammed.

This amount of $200,000 brings the total amount of gifts the University of Virginia has received this year up to about $600,000.

WOMEN REGISTERING

Quite a Large Number Sign Cards Pledging to Assist in the Conservation of Food.

Registration of the women of Alexandria for war service began this morning at a stand in the northwest corner of the market building under direction of a committee of ladies. Quite a number of women signed the cards pledging assistance in the movement for food conservation inaugurated by Herbert Hoover, the Federal food director. The second registration day for women of this city will be held at the same place in the market next Saturday, and it is expected that a booth will be erected by that time.

The following announcements have been made concerning the registration bythe committee:

First, that the age of the women is not required. The plan contemplates registering all women over sixteen, but no definite statement as to age, except that the signer is over sixteen, is required.

Second, that registration does not mean service away from home of any sort.

Third, that signing the registration cards does not mean a pledge to perform any service, but only an assurance of co-operation in efforts towards the conservation of food.

According to Washingon papers of this morning, movements have been already commenced among clerks employed by the government, in which cards are signed whereby the signer agreed to eat one wheatless meal a day, meat but once a day, to eat a greater proporion of fish and vegetables, and cut down sugar and butter.

This is an instance of the meaning of food conservation as a step towards helping to bring the war to a successful conclusion.

Numbers of Alexandria women, doing their marketing today at the various stalls of the city market, stopped at the registration stand to sign the cards furnished by the committee. The committee desires all who are unable to register today, or who, from misunderstanding of the project, neglect to do so, to avail themselves of the opportunity next Saturday, and give evidence that the women of the nation possess as much patriotism as the men.

MAY NOT BE BONE DRY.

West Virginia's Quart a Month Will Stand.

Charleston, W. Va., July 7.—West Virginia will not be "bone dry" under provisions of the Reed Constitutional amendment if enforcement of the federal statute is left to state prohibition officials. This was indicated in a statement by State Prohibition Commissioner Hallahan on receipt of word that the Department of Justice had construed the Reed Amendment as operating to render void the so called "quart a month" law enacted by the last West Virginia egislature.

"The legislature has defined the prohibition policy of ths state; that is, to permit the bringing into the state for personal use as much as one quart of intoxicating liquor within a period of 30 days," said Hallahan's statement. "The state prohibition department will cooperate lively with the federal authorities in every particular where there has been violation of our state law. As to the enforcement of the Reed amendment, which has been held to bar the importation of one quarth a month, that duty should seem to lie wholly with federal agents."

Hollweg's Speech.

Amsterdam, July 7.—German Imperial Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg is to announce Germany's adherence to the principles of "no annexations and no indemnities" in a speech he is expected to deliver at the Reichstag meeting today, according to reports here.

Germany, it was indicated, looks to the speech as affording an opening for peace negotiations.

The chancellor, it was indicated, has long supported the "no annexations, no indemnities" principles, but because of opposition of other governmental forces has made no announcement of this stand.

The fact that all opportunities of a separate peace with Russia seems now to have failed impelled the German government to decide on new peace announcements.

PRODUCE IS PLENTIFUL

Market Well-Supplied This Morning With Seasonable Fruits and Vegetables.

As had been anticipated, country people are complaining of the unsatisfactory prices they are receiving for their produce. These conditions are due to the fact that a large majority of the people of the city been growing vegetables this summer. In some cases the crops have not proven as prolific as had been hoped, but in others there has been a plethora of certain vegetables. Snap beans, for instance, have been plentiful in nearly every instance, while green peas have rewarded the labors of the amateur truckers. Besides these commodities, lettuce, radishes, onions, beets, etc., have been grown. As might have been expected, housekeepers who can gather certain vegetables in their back yards are not going to market for the purpose of purchasing the same.

Blackberries were plentiful this morning. They sold at two boxes for 25 cents. Raspberries brought 20 cents a box, and cherries and plums 10 cents. Apples sold at 10 cents per quarter peck. Cantaloupes sold at three for 25 cents, peaches 15 cents a box.

There was a decided slump in the prices of vegetables. Cabbages, which sold at 15 cents a pound some time ago, were being disposed of this morningat from 2 cents a head up. The market for this vegetable seemed to be glutted.

Home-grown tomatoes were sold at 15 cents per pound, or 30 cents per box. Prices for other produce were as follows: Beets two bunches for 5 cents; cymlins two for 5 cents; peas 10 cents per quarter peck; string beans 15 cents per half peck; potatoes 10 and 15 cents per quarter; onions two bunches for 5 cents; green corn 40 and 60 cents per dozen; lettuce two heads for 5 cents.

Eggs were doin at 40 cents per dozen, but fresh butter was offered at 38 cents per pound, a slight decline from the price of last Saturday.

GERMAN RUSE FAILED.

Crown Prince Tried Surprise, but Found French Ready.

French Front in France, July 7.—Personal initiative, combined with bravery and tenacity, won for the French a splendid victory when the Germans attempted Tuesday night to retake Chemin-des Dames by a furious attack.

The German Crown Prince had arranged a surprise party in order to offset the Russian victory in Galicia, but he knocked at the wrong door and received a disagreeable reception.

Hundreds of German dead, many of whom were youths of the 1918 class, lie with packs still strapped on their backs in front of the French lines and in the shell craters. The French commanding officers are enthusiastic about the undiminished dash and vigor of their men, which they regard as largely attributable to the moral aid provided by the arrival of American troops in France and the Russian forward movement in Galicia.

The commanding general declared that the presence of American fighting men not only encouraged the French soldiers in the ranks, but also their commanders.

Emperor of Austria Said to Favor Throwing Off Germanic Yoke.

London, July 7.—According to the Daily Express, a personal friend of the Empress Zita of Austria has informed certain members of the house of commons that the empress is exerting herself strongly in the interest of peace. She is credited with sufficient influence over Emperor Charles to induce him to try to withdraw from the Austro-Hungarian alliance with Germany as soon as Austria-Hungary is enabled to take such action.

REJECTS BONE-DRY LAW

Senate Yesterday Afternoon Refuses to Ban Beer and Wine With Whisky.

Bone dry prohibition failed to pass the Senate yesterday. By a vote of 54 to 34 the lawmakers refused to include beer and wine in the class with whisky. Senators Martin and Swanson voted with the majority.

Immediately afterward the Senate passed a drastic amendment by Senator Cummins forbidding not only the importation of whisky into the country during the war but also the withdrawal of any bonded distilled spirits for beverage purposes. This was adopted by a vote of 54 to 30 and later by separate votes.

Senator Underwood then called attention to the fact that this not only would cut off some $520,000,000 revenue but would choke millions of dollars involved in the whisky business without compensation to the manufacturers. He held this unconstitutional.

This threw the Senate into a small panic. Senators Brandegee, Harding and Penrose supported Underwood's contention.

Finally the Senate adjourned without voting on either the Chamberlain or Robinson amendments. These concern the main issue of prohibition. The first leaves beer and wine to the discretion of the President; the second merely abolishes whisky without saying anything about other beverages.

Half an hour later and the Senate could have disposed of the question.

Now the prohibition measure must be discussed today. It is predicted that while the part of the Cummins amendment forbidding distilled spirits importation will stand, the part prohibiting withdrawal for beverages purposes will be rejected unless a further amendment by Senator Reed is accepted. This leaves the matter of withdrawal for beverage purposes in the hands of the President to be exercised "in interest of the public."

FARMERS DISCHARGE SCOUTS

Boys Unable to Earn Fare, Says Charles Nesbit.

Here's the real story of why the Boy Scouts stopped picking potatoes in Virginia.

Charles F. Nesbit, chairman of the District Council of Defense, has investigated the matter for Herbert C. Hoover, food administrator. He said yesterday:

"The farmers along the eastern shore of Virginia were getting $10 a barrel for new potatoes several weeks ago owing to a shortage and they sent a hurry-up call for the Boy Scouts of Washington and Richmond to come and pick us the potatoes for a few cents a barrel. These potatoes were scarcely larger than marbles, and the farmers were digging them only on account of the extraordinary price.

"Most of the potatoes were going to New York, and suddenly potatoes from other fields began to pour into the New York market and the price dropped. The Virginia farmers could get only $4 a barrel.

"Why dig the rest of our potatoes now?" said the farmers. "In a few weeks they will have five times the bulk they have now."

"So the farmers sounded a retreat from the potato field and the Boy Scouts, who had been promised work for a month or more, were left stranded. Most of the boys had expected to earn enough money to buy their tickets home, and when they were suddenly without work they had to wire home for money.

"It isn't likely that the Boy Scout leaders will allow the boys to make such a journey again unless the farmers make some sort of guarantee."

STRANGE SIGHTS IN SKY

While the German submarine scare was still the topic of conversation among some persons in Alexandria early last night, slim streaks of what appeared to be smoke were seen to rise in the northern heavens, and after having remained in a perpendicular position, undisturbed by the fresh southeast wind which was prevailing at the time, would part into a number of prongs and branch out toward every point of the compass. While people on the streets at the time were peering towards the quarters of the aurora borealis it was noticed that a similar phenomenon appeared in the southern heavens.

People familiar with the adventure of Don Quixote were reminded of the huge aerial serpents which were pictured in books in the Don's library, while others, realizing the terrible war now in progress, and the assurance in the Bible that fearful sights in the heavens will be the accompaniments of the perilous times which are to wind up this dispensation, shivered as they looked skyward.

A number of persons ventured explanations of the strange sights they were witnessing. Some were positive they were signals being carried on by government officials with others farther south on the river. As the phenomena began shortly after the steamer Southland left Alexandria for Norfolk, it was thought by others that communication was being kept up with the boat by naval officials.

What puzzled most spectators was the fact that smoke from the electric light works and other places was wafted by the slim dark columns without disturbing the latter.

FEARS OF AMERICA.

German military sentiment, which finds its focus in the Kaiser himself, is represented as fearful to the last degree of the effects of the United States participation in the war upon the basis of the full magnitude of its preparations. As a contemporary suggests even German efficiency has been vastly outmatched and abashed in the presence of a republic having no dictatorial voice within the space of three months amassing several billions of dollars for a war loan, registering ten millions of men in their military prime sending an arm of twenty thousand across seas, together with a naval force and hospital units. It has been amazed to find the United States rapidly placing itself upon a war footing and making preparations so stupendous as to shatter the most optimistic hopes for a German victory should the war continue until the United States is ready to bring its full weight to bear.

Hence the demand that is being made for a superlative effort by the German armies to break through the Allies' line and to beat them outright upon the field. But with Russia now recuperated, with Rumania ready wit ha new army, with Greece and its army available, and with seven hundred thousand recruits from the United States upon the point of selection and training and embarkation, the hope of a German success by a supreme move is slight indeed.

"FRIENDS OF THE GERMAN REPUBLIC."

"The Society of the Friends of the German Republic" is an interesting pamphlet which is being sent out from New York. The first paragraph is as follows: "There is no surer and swifter way out of this terrible war than the establishment of a German republic. The sooner the German people remove their autocrats and junkers the sooner peace will come. The Russians have shown the way."

Continuing, the pamphlet urges that "the German people are longing for peace. They did not make this war; they do not covet the lands of their neighbor. Freed from the incubus of an arrogant militarist clique and organized in a democratic republic, they would at once be in a position to conclude that honorable and stable peace for which they are yearning."

The Richmond Virginian says that whatever may be the intentions of the European leaders, some of which are quoted as favoring a dismemberment of the German empire before concluding peace, the American people and the people of the allied nations would not consent to a breaking up of a free Germany. No calamity would be quite so serious to the German people themselves as victory in this war as the fetters of autocracy would thereby be bound all the tighter upon them.

According to the "Friends of the German Republic" the republican movement is spreading rapidly and the number of arrests for "subversive propaganda" have greatly increased throughout the empire.

The American people will be delighted to do all in their power to help break the bonds of kaiserism and militarism.

Every American is really an honorary member of this society. We bear no hate for the people of Germany. We would do them good. If they will but help themselves we will stand by them valiantly both to free them from the kaiser's grip and to secure a peace that will be alike satisfactory to them and honorable to our allies.

OUR SOLDIER VISITORS

Large numbers of United States soldiers who are stationed near Alexandria visit the city daily and during the early hours of the night the main streets are thronged with them. They are orderly and well-behaved and such of our people who remember other days when soldiers filled the streets very naturally draw contrasts between the behavior of those of old and the enlisted men of the present generation.

A pleasant feature is the fact that many of these sons of Mars attend our churches. On Sundays they are seen in all places of worship. On last Thursday night one hundred and twenty-five appeared in the First Baptist Church, most of whom promised to attend the J. R. N. Curtin Memorial Bible Class tomorrow morning.

Generally, soldiers are thoughtless, and when they obtain leaves of absence for the purpose of visiting cities near their camps they are not always looking for churches, but generally for places which add nothing to their morality.

Alexandrians are doing everything possible to make these visitors feel at home, and the soldier boys appreciate the interest taken in them.

EFFECTS OF WAR.

In the little German city of Zittau the city council has admonished the population to go barefooted, because there soon will be no leather from which to manufacture shoes; in Duesseldorf, Stettin, Gleiwitz, and other towns food riots are multiplying; newspapers are flying from one extreme to the other, frantically calling for support of the government one day, and relapsing into morbid forebodings of the future on the next.

Dispatches from a certain section of Russia tell of men who have resolved to go in puris naturalibus (in a state of nature) until conditions change. Their clothing has worn completely out and they have no money with which to purchase new apparel.

REQUEST GERMANS TO LEAVE.

Teutons Formerly Connected With Embassy Notified That Their Presence is Undesirable.

All Germans formerly connected with the German embassy or any one of the many consulates in America have been requested to leave the United States. Notification that their presence in America is undesirable has been sent to them by the State Department.

The Germans, who principally are clerks or servants, were not told that they were suspected of being spies. The inference that their loyalty to the kaiser might make it difficult for them to remain in this country without attempting to send information of a miliary character to their government was made clear.

Another squad of militant suffrage pickets, 11 in number, began yesterday afternoon a three-day term in the District of Columbia jail to which they were sentenced for their attempts as members of the National Woman's Party to parade with suffrage banners in front of the White House in defiance of the law. This is the second squad to go to jail for the same offense, six having served a similar term last week.

RENEWED TESTIMONY

No one in Alexandria who suffers backache, headaches, or distressing bladder ills can afford to ignore this Alexandria woman's twice-told story. It is confirmed testimony that no Alexandria resident can doubt.

Mrs. Martha Pyrne, 209 Wilkes Street, Alexandria, says: "I suffered severely from backaches and pains throughout my body. My kidneys were badly disordered and I was steadily running down in health. A friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and the first box greatly benefited me. I kept on using them and I now enjoy good health."

Over four years later Mrs. Byrne said: "I seldom have any trouble ith my kidneys now. Doan's Kidney Pills are responsible for my present good health."

Price 50 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Byrne has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Agents for the Department of Justice in New York yesterday afternoon arrested two Germans, one reputed to be a paymaster for the German spy system in this country, and the other alleged to have been formerly associated with Capt. Franz von Papen, at one time military attache at the German embassy in Washington. The prisoners were removed to the Ellis Island immigration station. They are accused of being alien enemies to the United States. They are described as Carl Heynen, a German organizer and an authority on Mexican affairs, and F. A. Burgemeister. The latter is alleged to be a spy paymaster.

After a bitter quarrel with her sweetheart, Mrs. Reba Bosworth, a divorced woman of 30 years, was shot through the head and killed in her mother's lodging house in Lynn, Mass., yesterday. Frank Staples, the sweetheart, who declared that Mrs. Bosworth committed suicide, was detained by the police and finally was booked under suspicion of the murder.

Two moving picture actresses and four men have been shot as spies after a court-martial in Rome. They were found guilty of having successfully conspired to blow up the Italian superdreadnought Leonardo da Vinci.

The armed American merchantman Orleans, out of New York, has been torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine, with a loss of four sailors, the State Department was advised last night. The locality of the attack and the date are not given.

The Russkaya Vedomosty reports the peasants of two cantons near Odessa, Russia, in view of inability to obtain clothing, have passed a resolution to organize "processions of naked men."

Firing on the Danish schooner Freden without warning and later turning their guns on a lifeboat in which the crew tried to escape, is the latest exploit of German submarines brought to the notice of the State Department.

Tentative recognition of the street carmen's union of the Bloomington, Ill., and Normal Electric Power and Railway Company was given today by the Illinois traction system interests and the strike which has been in progress several weeks is practically ended.

CHANCELLOR TO SPEAK

Declarations as Basis for Peace Expected from Von Bethmann-Hollweg.

London, July 7.—Declarations which will serve as a basis for peace negotiations will be made by the German chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, in his coming speech before the reichstag, according to German sources of information at The Hague.

This changed attitude is said to be the outcome of the conviction that all hopes of a separate peace with Russia must be abandoned and that a Russian offensive must be faced.

The chancellor's speech will probably be delivered today.

The Copenhagen correspondent hears that the reichstag socialists will make their support of the new war loan dependent upon the situation developed by the debate.

Copenhagen, July 7.—The steering committee of the reichstag, according to a dispatch received here, has decided to terminate the midsummer sessions by the middle of next week if possible and adjourn until the end of October. A brief session accords with the government's wishes and signifies the abandonment of the additional representation of some thirty overgrown districts.

The government's over optimistic report on the crop prospects, which were declared on June 25 to be "really brilliant," were sharply criticised yesterday by speakers in the reichstag ways and means committee. They accuse the government of giving the people a false view of the situation, arousing unrealizable hopes.

EXCITING SCENE.

Roosevelt and Gompers Clash Over East St. Louis Riots.

New York, July 7.—Denial by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, that trades unions had had any share in the East St. Louis riots, which was met by a vehement denunciation by Theodore Roosevelt of the murder of helpless negroes, precipitated a tumultuous demonstration at a mass meeting held in Carnegie Hall here last night in honor of the Russian mission to the United States.

Mr. Roosevelt was interrupted by Mr. Gompers, who rose from his seat and approached the former President.

"Why don't you accuse after an investigation?" the labor leader demanded.

"I'll Answer Now," He Says.

With these words he returned to his seat. Col. Roosevelt strode over to his chair and exclaimed:

"Mr. Gompers, why don't I accuse afterward? I'll answer now when murder is to be answered."

With that the colonel brought down on Mr. Gompers' shoulder his open left hand, which he had raised above his head. At this juncture many of the men on the platform leaped to their feet and there was a storm of hisses, cheers and "boos" from all parts of the house. When the former president had finished, Mr. Gompers, evidently deeply stirred, started to rise to make rejoinder, but was pushed back into his seat by those who sat near him, while Mayor Mitchel, who presided, pounded vigorously with his gavel in an effort to restore order. Several minutes elapsed before it was possible to introduce Boris Bakhemetieff, the Russian Ambassador, and continue the meeting.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

It was revealed yesterday that J. Edwin Allemong, lawyer and music composer of Roanoke, who was mysteriously wounded in the head by a pistol bullet, was shot by his wife while he was asleep early Wednesday morning, according to a statemen given out Thursday. Mrs. Allemong, who at one time possessed brilliant literary ability, has been adjudged insane, and the authorities took her to a sanatorium yesterday. Last Sunday, it was related, she attempted to give her husband poisoned ice cream, and, it is asserted, that she made a previous attempt to end his life. Financial difficulties are said to have deranged her.

DROWNS AS BOAT EXPLODES.

Captain of Oil Craft Swims Till Rescued by Oil Workers.

Chester, Pa., July 7.—One man was drowned and another seriously burned, Thursday afternoon, at Marcus Hook, when the oil-carrying launch, Ellen B., owned by the Hearn Oil Company, of Wilmington, blew up a short distance from the wharf of the Texas Oil Company, where the craft had just taken on a cargo of 2500 gallons of gasoline.

The dead man is Charles Farley, of Wilmington, 25 years old, the engineer of the boat. Captain C. D. Meyers, of Wilmington, when hurled overboard by the explosion, made desperate efforts to save his companion's life, though seriously burned abou the arms and face.

Employees of the Texas Company rescued Meyers a short distance from shore, after the injured man had swam nearly a quarter mile.

Following the first explosion two more flares/set the hundreds of gallons of gasoline on fire and the craft burned to the water's edge, then sank.

Meyers stated the explosion was caused by a backfire from the engine igniting fumes from the gasoline.

TRAIN HITS FAMILY PARTY.

Little Girl Killed and Others Badly Injured at Crossing.

Millville, N. J., July 7.—When a Maurice River train of the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad demolished an auto truck of Howard Newcomb, of Leesburg, at the grade crossing near his home Thursday afternoon, his daughter, Flora, 10 years old, was fatally injured. Newcomb, who was driving the car, and Winfield, Lina and Butler Newcomb, small children, were seriously hurt.

The crossing is a dangerous one, and Newcomb did not see the train until it was close upon him. In an attempt to avoid collision, he turned his machine quickly and it was side-swiped by the engine. Three of the occupants were thrown, severely hurt, while Flora was pinned beneath the wreckage.

Trenton, Ga.—Mrs. Ellie Gifford, of this place, writes: "I have always suffered . . . but was worse after marriage. I would have . . . pains and misery in my stomach and hips. I would have a bad sick headache every time, which would generally last two days. I had always heard what a good medicine Cardui was, so I thought I would try it. I used two bottles and it helped me.

Fifteen months later I began to be nervous and was worse at my . . . But at these times I did not have any pain and do not now suffer any pain. But I was very nervous, so nervous that my hands would shake. Any noise would make me jump. So I took two more bottles of Cardui. I have never been nervous since . . . and do not have any pain. I think this is all due to Cardui and Black-Draught."

KENT ISLAND PROTEST

Ninety Per Cent of Residents Beg Government Not to Molest Them.

Washington, July 7.—A scene unprecedented in pathetic human interest was enacted in the office of Secretary of War Baker yesterday, when a committee representing 90 per cent, of the residents of Kent Island pleaded with Secretary Baker not to destroy their homes and to send them out into the world as wanderers. The War Department has for several months been quietly taking steps to secure Kent Island for a proving ground. But it was only a few days ago that the great majority of the prosperous farmers and business men of the Island realized that options ha dbeen obtained on a number of farms on the island and that the War Department's agents were actively circulating among the people of the island for more land.

Up to the present time options on about 5,000 acres have already been secured. No small part in securing these options was played by the veiled threat of the government's power of eminent domain, and its right to take over in time of war any property it needed by condemnation, if necessary.

"ONLY BEGUN TO FIGHT"

Russians Reply by Artillery Fire When Germans Ask to be Friends.

London, July 7.—On an eighteen mile front in northeastern Galicia, between Brzezay and Zborow, Gen. Brusiloff's heavy guns are serving thunderous notice on the Teutons that the Russians have "only begun to fight." Since Monday there has been a deadlock on this front; yesterday Berlin told of the new terrifis bombardment, presaging a resumption of Brusiloff's drive on Lemberg.

Far down to the southeast on the Rumanian front, big things are stirring. The Russians and Rumanians have for days shown sigs of preparattions for an offensive here. The Germans, according to Petrograd, let white flags of truce flutter over the lines and shouted across the parapets, "let's be friends." But for Russia the shouts "were met by the fire of our artillery," says the Russian war office report.

DENIES TUETON PACT

Mexico Ready to Fight if Neutrality Is Infringed, Adds General.

Nogales, Ariz., July 7.—Mexico is in no manner compromised with the central powers; she has no alliance with them and none is desired. Mexico's part is that of a strict eutral, but the country would not hesitate to declare belligerency if its neutrality were infringed or attacked."

Gen. Alvaro Obregon, former Mexican minister of war, made these assertions in an interview here yesterday.

'Regarding the United States, we have only friendly feeling," he said. "I cannot laud too highly the personal of the United States army officers with whom I have come in contact along the border."

HOT FIGHT OVER DRAFT

Efforts of the French Nationalists to Kill the Bill—Measure Passes House.

Ottawa, Ont., July 7.dThe Canndian House of Commons early yesterday adopted the resolution offered by Premier Borden passing to second reading the bill for compulsory military service.

Exciting scenes marked the taking of the vote, which stood 118 for conscription and 55 against.

The vote gave the government about 20 more votes than it usually polls on important questions. This was the result of a considerable number of English-speaking Liberals breaking away from the leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and joining wit hPremier Borden in support of conscription.

Before the bill was sanctioned Sir Wilfrid Laurier's proposal that the opinion of the people on conscription should be tested by a refrendum was defeated by a majority of 49. The attendance of members of the House was the largest that had been seen in Parliament for many years. The gallaries were filled with spectators throughout the night and until the proceedings closed at sunrise. A majority of the spectators were soldiers returned from Europe and women.

A resolution presented by the French Nationalists from the Province of Quebec that the conscription bill shoul dbe kil'ed by the adoption of a six-month postponement was defeated by the large majority of 166. Only nine Nationalist votes were cast for the resolution, and both the government and the opposition to conscription voted against this proposal.

An amendment aimed to supply more adequate provision for dependents of men at the front was defeated, 115 to 55.

Premier Borden explained that this amendment was "dilatory" and that he would refuse to allow it to interfere with the second reading.

HOOVER WANTS STOCKADES

Advocates Theybe Built Around All Grain Elevators.

Chicago, July 7.—A request that stockades be built aroundal l elevators in grain-growing districts, as protection against enemy plots, was contained in a letter from Herbert C. Hoover, federal food administrator, received by John J. Griffin, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, it was announced yesterday. A committee of the board has the matter under consideration.

One member of the board voiced the opposition, saying that the stockades would merely advertise location of the elevators, and "wave a re dflag in the afce of the Germans." He added that if plots to destiny foodstuffs exists that the government should send troops to guard imperiled property.

GEN. SCOTT IN RUMANIA.

Will See That Needs of the Army Are Satisfied.

Jassy, Rumania, July 7.—Major General Hugh L Scott, chief of staffo f the United States Army, with other military members of the American mission to Russia, has arrived here from the Russian front. The Americans were welcomed formally at theHouse of Parliament, where addresses of welcome were delivered by Premier Bratiaon and other ministers.

In reply General Scott said he had received from the Rumanian ministers and the Rumanian General Staff a report concerning the needs of the Rumanian Army and that his mission would use all possible energy in order to see that these needs were satisfied.

ROOT'S GIFT TO SOLDIERS

American Donates Nine Thousand Rubles to Those of Moscow.

Petrograd, July 7.—Elihu Root, head of the American mission to Russia, has donated 5,000 rubles to the soldiers of Moscow. He was formally thanked for the gift by the mayor of the city. Charles R. Carne and John R. Mott, of the mission, attended the election at Moscow at which Archbishop Tikhon, formerly stationed in the United States, was named Metropolita of Moscow by popular vote. The metropolitan formerly was appointed by the Emperor.

SAXON DIET WIDENS BREAK

Defiance of Government Will Force Its Reassembly by August.

Copenhagen, July 7.—A dispatch from Dresden says the Saxon diet, which Tuesday warned the government of a disappearance of the sentiment of loyalty toward the king and also of a coming upheaval unless the government mend its ways, has now broken openly with the government.

This action is a consequence of a refusal of Count Von Vitzehum d'Eckstadt, premier of Saxony, to authorize the diet committee on constitutional reform to continue its labors during recess.

The diet refused to give the necessary authorization to settle fuel problems and it must therefore be reconvened not later than August. This will enable the constitutional committee to resume work.
